The business was opened by Barb and Bob Fordyce in 1957 as an A&W Rootbeer Stand. It had a very limited menu consisting of hot dogs, shredded chicken sandwiches, popcorn, Jones' potato chips, homemade rootbeer, and orange drink.

In 1969 Joann and Bud Bemiller bought the business and ran it until 1984, when it was sold to their son Steve and his wife Deb. In 1985 the A&W franchise was dropped, and Ashland-Wooster Drive-In was born, with the addition of the drive-thru, many new menu items, and a new look.

Steve Bemiller sold the business to Mindi and Frank Keener in 2021. We are excited to continue providing the excellent food that the community has come to love. Our goals are to provide a great place to work for our employees and to give our clients the best customer service possible.
